

ESTONIAN ASSOCIATION FOR ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT

5th Anniversary Conference ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT – QUO VADIS?

26th August 2008, Tallinn
Hotel Euroopa

Preliminary PROGRAMME

9.00	Registration of participants
9.20	Opening ceremony	Jaanus Tamkivi , Estonian Minister of the Environment (will be confirmed)
Development of environmental management (EM) in Estonia
9.30	Welcome speech, EKJA 5 th anniversary	Tõnis Meriste , Estonian Association for Environmental Management
9.50	Past and future of the implementation of the environmental management tools in Estonia	Harri Moora , SEI-Tallinn
10.30	The role of the State in promoting environmental management	Ministry of the Environment (will be confirmed)
11.00	Coffee break
Examples of best EM practices in Estonia
11.20	Company presentation	(will be confirmed)
11.40	Company presentation	(will be confirmed)
12.00	AS Ecoprint – finalist of European Business Award for the Environment 2008	Juhan Peedimaa , AS Ecoprint
12.20	Plenary session
13.00	Lunch
14.00	Latest EMAS developments in Europe – EMAS revision, Eco-Innovation and EMAS Easy	Heinz Werner Engel Eco-Conseil Enterprise scri
14.30	Leonardo Da Vinci funded Be-Smarter project : a European Thematic Network	Jean-Marie Savino – BE-Smarter network coordinator
Overview of best EMS practices identified in the Be-Smarter Network
14.45	Eco-Efficiency : Economic savings – cases from Hungary	Imre Pap , Hungarian Association for Environmentally Aware Management (KÖVET)
15.00	Coffee break
15.30	Step by step approach : The 3 stars Brussels eco-dynamic label in Belgium	Alain Maes , ICHEC Entreprise
15.45	EMS in the craft sector: the Saar-Lor-Lux approach in Germany	Stephan Hirsch Saar-lor-Lux Umwelzentrum
16.00	Sectorial approaches: EMS in the southern France agrofood sector	Mathilde Angeleri , ARPE
16.15	Convoy approaches: the German Modell Hohenlohe: EMAS Easy and Energy efficiency	Kurt Weissenbach , Modell Hohenlohe
16.30	Discussions
17.00	End	